

Blue City Come to the city of sun..! SuryaNagri

Decorated with countless engravings of gallantry, design ability, and regular magnificence, Jodhpur traveler places welcome you to observe the magnetism of the past. Established in 1459 A.D. by Rao Jodha, the city treats its travelers with the grandeur of the past by offering them a few alternatives for touring in Jodhpur. If you are love to explore a sneak look into the past period, visit Jodhpur. Among very much wanted spots to visit in Jodhpur are royal residences, forts, places of worship, historical centers, and gardens that expressive the past greatness. Here, we present to you the best places to visit in Jodhpur that talk a long way about this wonderful gem to the crown of Rajasthan, Jodhpur, the Blue City of India, is a stunning spot for a vacation in Rajasthan. We should have a more intensive gander at these spots and what makes them so exceptional:

Clock Tower Jodhpur

The Ghanta Ghar in Jodhpur is a grand clock tower in the focal point of the city, worked by Maharaja Sardar Singh around 200 years later. Known as the clock tower of Rajasthan, it is a famous milestone that implies the beginning of Old Jodhpur. The area encompassing this impressive structure is clamoring with local people introducing a wide range of items and administrations, making it the busiest and biggest commercial center of Jodhpur.

Learn More →

Jaswant Thada

As both the landmarks are at a short distance, these are tourist spots to visit in Jodhpur in one day. Additionally, you will understand that it is all the more of a temple where perished rulers are adored. This is the most well-known tourist spot in Jodhpur.

Learn More →

Umaid Bhawan Palace

It is built on the highest point in the city of Jodhpur and is the world's largest private residence. The hotel is maintained by the Taj group of hotels and is open to guests only. The museum is open to the public whereas the royal residence area is restricted.

Learn More →

2.7K
Users

1.8K
Subscribes

400
visited site

35
seeing